reciters may recite the Quranic verses in two ways: Sajdah is the prostration of the body between 6 and 8 rajazs after recitation of the verse. Sunni Reciter should recite Allah's name – The Tashahud, seven times in every verse of the Quran. For example, if a verse contains 100 ayat, the reciter should recite the Tashahud – Allahu Akbar, seven times after the 100 ayat, i.e., once after each ayat of the Quranic verse. For example: if the Quranic verse contains 100 ayat, then the reciter should recite Allahu Akbar seven times after the 100 ayat. Allah says in the Quranic verse 8,082: O you who believe, if you are in doubt about the Quran,
