Guest Post by Joe Hoft Law enforcement in Texas is being investigated for why over 300 law enforcement officers converged on a small medical clinic in San Antonio after gun owners attending the Texas School Roundup had no idea who was being asked for guns at the event. Just how many guns were donated at this event according to major law enforcement officials is a mystery. Over 300 law enforcement responded to this event alone and had no regard for the Second Amendment Rights of the attendees. This came to light after county district attorney Nico LaHood wrote a letter to the federal government stating that San Antonio County has gotten over 8,000 guns from every county in Texas based on 'taxes'
