If you want to create slides, you will notice that they are very similar to Microsoft PowerPoint slides. The advantage of these slides is that you can put them on CD or DVD. A detailed description of the property and function of the slides is in the presentation about Right Autorun Pro. Each slide has several properties such as • Picture • Text • Appearance (Font and size) • Borders (Normal, Near, Far) • Alignment • Table of contents • Auto slide number (Add an index number to the slide, so we can create slide-show) • Show slide number. For example, the button "Slide 1" can be clicked to show the slide 1. If you want to control autorun, you will notice all the properties of the control file are shown. A sample control file can be found in the presentation sample. Note that by default, slides are read-only. You can also create a presentation with the help of the most powerful control file, which has autorun commands to automatically run the slides. By changing b7e8fdf5c8
