Tasić formerly played for OFK Beograd in the Serbian SuperLiga, Bulgarian club Lokomotiv Plovdiv in the Bulgarian A PFG, and FK Sloga Jugopetrovac in the Serbian First League.

Club career In May 2011, Tasić, along with Marko Jeličić, Srđan Dimitrijević and Blagoje Bojanić, signed a three-year contract with Bulgarian club PFC Lokomotiv Plovdiv. However, he stayed with the club for only four months and in July 2011, he moved to Serbian club OFK Beograd. Tasić made his senior debut for OFK Beograd in the 2009–10 Serbian SuperLiga, coming on as a substitute for Vukašin Radan in the 69th minute of a 3–2 home win over Jagodina. He scored his first goal for the club in the 7th minute of the following fixture, a 3–1 victory away at Rad. The following season, he helped OFK achieve a play-off spot in the Serbian First League, and also appeared seven times in the domestic cup. On 15 July 2010, Tasić signed a two-year contract extension. He scored his second goal for the club in the 90th minute of a 2–1 home win over Liria in the Serbian Cup on 21 September 2010, in the 55th minute of the next fixture, a 4–0 home victory over Radnički 1923, and also added an assist for Nemanja Ilić. In June 2011, Tasić was offered a contract with Bulgarian club Lokomotiv Plovdiv. He played for the club in the 2011–12 onCreateView() methods I have an Activity that has two Views. I have a login View and a main View. Once the user authenticates, I return to the main View. When the user logout, I want to finish the Activity. How can I save the state of my Activity in onCreate() and onCreateView() methods? A:

You should use onSaveInstanceState and onRestoreInstanceState. This is a good tutorial. Q: Adding
